The Algerians know what a real plague of grasshoppers is. In one district in that country alone over 50,000 gallons of the eggs of the pest were gathered and burned last year.

Pete Maher, the pugilist, attempted suicide by jumping from a train near Charlotte, N. C. day before yesterday. Fitzsimmons, who was on the train, prevented him from carrying out his intention.

The Grass Valley Tidings contains news of the death of "Uncle Billy Chollar," after whom the Chollar mine on the Comstock was named. His death occurred in Danisonville, Connecticut, on February 23. His age was 27 years and 5 months.

A train of five cars made entirely of steel is on exhibition at the Chicago and Northern Pacific Station in Chicago. It is claimed the cars neither cost nor weigh more than the old style, while being practically indestructible by fire or in a wreck.

It is learned that no appointment of Minister of Japan will be made by the President until there has been an investigation of the charges made against Major Bonebrake of Los Angeles. The charges made relate to the case of the Semi-tropical Irrigation Company.

The principle desire of the Storey County gun club seems to be to meet two or three times a week, talk about current prices of ducks and fish and then strike the proprietor of the International for a more elaborate free lunch. Wake up gentlemen and come over to the lake occasionally.

The Church of St. Nicholas, one of the prominent churches of Valencia, Spain, was much injured by a dynamite bomb yesterday. The altar of the Virgin was wrecked, the costly ornaments lying in a heap of ruins. A valuable picture of "the Conception," painted by Vicente Juans, was destroyed. The explosion is attributed to Anarchists.

At Elgin, Minn., a band of White Caps visited the farmhouse of John Reid, dragged Sidney Green, a farm hand, from his bed and gave him a coat of tar and feathers. They then rode him on a rail and ordered him to leave the country. He returned to Reid's house but was ordered away and on his refusing to go, a warrant was sworn out for his arrest, and he is now in jail. The whitecapping grew out of an elopement in which Green and Farmer Crawford's wife were the principals.

The State University has been closed until the beginning of the Spring term, March 28th, on account of a case of scarlet fever. The case is a mild one, and the patient has passed the most dangerous stage and is doing well. The authorities, by closing a week earlier than usual, have ample time to disinfect the buildings thoroughly, and are taking active measures to do so. A strict quarantine has been established, and these precautionary measures will soon rid the University of scarlet fever.

Ye Olde Folkes Greate Concerte.

A great deal of credit is due Mrs. W. T. Hanford, who with Prof. Haymanson's assistance presented to the public one of the finest musical entertainments ever given in Carson. The perfect manner in which the concerted music was rendered, showed most careful training, the singing of each selection being simply delightful. The audience was treated to a genuine surprise by a pupil of the Professor's from Virginia City, Miss Emma Haas. Her first selection was "Il Bacio" by Ardit, which was most brilliantly sung. In response to an encore she sang a pretty song of Millard's, entitled "Bless Your Little Heart," with charming grace. But the undoubted gem of the evening was the duet sang by the same young lady and Prof. Haymanson, from the opera of "Il Traviatore." This was indeed a rare treat and worth alone many times the price of admission. The lady and gentleman participants all acquitted themselves admirably. It was generally remarked how much Mrs. Bender's voice had gained under Prof. Haymanson's instruction, in purity and sweetness. In consequence of Mrs. Bender's indecision as to singing, Prof. Haymanson was unable to give her a rehearsal, so Mr. Meder kindly played the accompaniment.

Among the pleasing features were the singing of Miss Lottie Meier and Miss Henrietta Oleovich. Both responded to encores.

The tableaux were well received. The corner solo by Mr. Luper was right alongside the professionals, and was loudly encored.

The declamations were also well rendered by Mrs. F. G. Folsom and Miss Schneider.

If any of the participants have been overlooked it is because the reporter was unable to decipher the assumed names on the program or recognize the performers in "ye olde fashioned attire."

After the concert a fine spread was partaken of by a large portion of the audience, and the exchequer of the Church was considerably added to.

Fur Seals Becoming Extinct.

A London dispatch states that Lord Salisbury has constantly made difficulties and raised objections to a renewal of the treaty relating to the protection of the fur seal herds in Behring Sea. The reasons for his last refusal to renew this part of the treaty are not given in the dispatch and the State Department if it has been furnished with his reasons, has not made them public. Whatever they are, the practical effect of Lord Salisbury's refusal will be the indiscriminate slaughter of tens of thousands of seals and possibly their extermination. Neither Canada nor Great Britain will derive any benefit from such a course, but it will prove a serious financial loss to the United States. By the time the Board of Arbitration reaches a conclusion there may be nothing left to arbitrate about. The seal will simply have disappeared. If this be Lord Salisbury's object he has certainly taken the most effective steps to attain it in refusing to renew the proceedings of last year.

Spring Fights and Races.

Tim Dempsey has a full grown lynx on exhibition in his saloon, that is being put in condition to fight Cow On's bull dog, the finest scrapper in Chinatown. The fight will come off at the race track one week from Sunday and is to be a finish. The mongrel is willing to bet that his dog can strangle the lynx to death about as fast as the next canine and is anxious to make a few bets on the side. Tim is just as hopeful as the Chinaman and would like to make a few bets himself. Jack Furlong has set some fifteen or twenty steel traps in the coyote pastures for the purpose of securing one that will allow himself to be chased by Woodburn's stag hound. Of course Jack don't want a coyote that can possibly be caught as it would be a bad feature for betting men. Possibly a horse race can be arranged but there will certainly be some sport.

Forty dollars will be expended in prizes to be contested for at Lindsay & Pierce's prize dance at the Armory Saturday night.

The 11th of March will throw the doors of the theatrical world open to the Empire Minstrels, one of the most powerful and well selected combinations in Nevada. An entirely new program has been arranged for the public, and extra chairs have been placed in Wiggins' theater. Positively last appearance. One night only. Remember the 11th. Tickets at the door. No extra charge for reserved seats. m6.

A Funny Incident.

The rebellion of Judge Von Brunt against long winded lawyers in the Field insanity case, must have created a very amusing scene, although probably it did not strike the lawyers that way. The hearing was proceeding quietly, when the Judge electrified the room by saying: "When this trial began counsel promised me that it would consume but five days and I have already sat here eight days, and the prospects of finishing it this week are meager indeed. Gentlemen of the jury," he added, "you are discharged."

For a moment all was confusion. The Judge, with much deliberation, was putting on his overcoat, while the jury seemed too much surprised to do anything but to sit still and wonder. Then Mr. Cockran walked over to District Attorney Nicoll and remarked: "Well, I'll be d—!" "So will I," replied the District Attorney. The Judge then left court, but was intercepted by counsel, who, with many promises, induced him to return. He did so, only to adjourn court.

Unappreciated Economy.

As an example of unrewarded eccentric thrift an anecdote told to the Journal on Saturday, is worth recording, though it does touch upon funeral joking. Some forty years ago a Massachusetts good-wife lay in her bed apparently dying with consumption. As the family lived four miles from the undertaker and pastor, and the roads were badly blocked with snow, (the husband when called to the village on Tuesday, decided,—thoughtful man—to save an extra journey in that bitter weather by engaging the minister and undertaker at once and appointing the funeral for Friday. In some way Wednesday the sick woman heard of this, and, arousing herself from her supposed dying condition, declared: "There'll be no funeral in this house this week!" The funeral was postponed, Friday it took place, forty years after it was originally set. The husband is still living at the age of 80.—Boston Journal.

St. Patrick's Masque Ball.

James Wiggins, the Empire entertainer, has made every preparation to give the public a first class masquerade on the 17th. A good orchestra has been posted as to the requirements of Empire dancers, and first class music will be the result. The well known caterer, Mrs. Koahl, will spread one of her home made banquets for those who desire to enjoy it. Costumes can be secured at the hall, and plenty of stable room is at hand for those attending in carriages. m6

Pasturage.

On the Duffy and Kirman ranches which contain over 700 acres, being the largest body of pasture land in Ormsby county. As the waters from Clear Creek flume, Ash Canyon and Lake View flow through the property it is the best watered. From the extended range it is eminently fitted for stock cattle and horses. Two bulls, a Holstein and a Jersey, are kept for the service of stock. A limited number of milch cows will be driven from and returned to the city daily. Season commences April 15th. Terms reasonable.
